

EHS OBJECTIVES AND TARGETS

Strategic Marine (S) Pte Ltd set the measurable and achievable EHS Objectives and Targets for the worksite with the time-frame for achievement and commitment to the prevention of incident and ill health. The EHS Objectives and Targets of Strategic Marine (S) Pte Ltd are as follows:

EHS Objectives

- Achieve a zero-incident frequency and severity rate including but not limited to, fall from height incident, finger and eye injuries and noise induced deafness.
- Achieve Zero safety demerit point from Ministry of Manpower.
- Implement best practices and innovations to reduce risk at source.
- Implement effective Safe management measures program including good hygiene practice, health checks & protocols, PPE compliance to manage any epidemic/pandemic /diseases.

EHS Targets

- Zero Lost Time Incident Severity Rate (LTISR)
- Zero Lost Time Incident Frequency Rate (LTIFR)
- To reduce Total Recordable Incident Rate (TRIR) to <1.0
- Zero Diesel spillage incidents during bunkering
- Zero Fines from Authority for poor EHS practices
- Zero Epidemic or Industrial diseases in our workplace

SMS EHS Critical Success Factors

- Management commitment and support.
- Staff involvement and support from all levels.
- Contractors' compliance of EHS requirements.
- Adequate EHS training, briefing to staff & workers.
- Efficient & effective monitoring and enforcement measures.

MR. CHAN ENG YEW
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
DATED: 06 SEPTEMBER 2021

This document has been approved for use in accordance with the information at the cover sheet. Copies of this document are UNCONTROLLED, unless approved otherwise by Document Controller. Refer to EHS Management System for current version. This document is the property of Strategic Marine. Any unauthorized use, disclosure, reproduction or/and transmission is strictly prohibited. If you are not authorized to possess a copy of this document, or are not the intended recipient of this document, you are to immediately return or destroy this document.